

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

said health officer may direct, for the prevention of the disease known as glanders.

SEC. 3. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be subject to a penalty of $5.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

Venereal Diseases—Notification of Cases by Physicians. (Ord. 119, Apr. 29, 1915.)

SECTION 1. That it shall be the duty of every physician, practicing in the city of Pittsburgh to report to the department of public health by number from his case book or by initial letter all cases of venereal diseases coming under his care, acute or chronic, or of remote diseases traceable thereto as a direct cause, avoiding in every case any history that would in any way disclose the identity of the patient; in every case giving the sex, age, nationality, race, marital or nonmarital state, diagnosis, primary or secondary, duration of the case, and source of infection when possible. That the above rule shall also apply to physicians attending cases of venereal diseases in all public or private institutions, hospitals, dispensaries, clinics, homes, asylums, charitable or correctional institutions.

SEC. 2. All reports made in accordance with the provisions of the previous section and all records of clinical or laboratory examinations indicating persons affected with venereal diseases shall be regarded as confidential, and shall not be open to inspection by the public or any person other than the official custodian of such reports or records in the department of public health and such other persons as may be authorized by law to inspect such reports or records; nor shall the custodian of any such report or record or any other such person divulge any part of any such report or record so as to disclose the identity of the person to whom it relates.

SEC. 3. Any person who shall fail, neglect, or refuse to comply with, or who shall violate any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall, upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding before any police magistrate of the city of Pittsburgh, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than $50, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a period of not more than 30 days in default of payment of said fine.

SEC. 4. The department of public health of the city of Pittsburgh is hereby authorized and empowered to enforce the provisions of this ordinance.

PITTSTON, PA.

Spitting—Prohibited in Public Places—Spittoons. (Ord. May 25, 1915.)

SECTION 1. That, from and after the passage of this ordinance, it shall be unlawful for any person to spit on any public walk, public wharf or landing, or on the floor, platform, stairway, or elevator, or covering used thereon of any railroad or railway station, or other building to which the public has access; or on the floor or platform or steps, or any covering used thereon, of any railroad or railway car, or other vehicle, conveyance, or common carrier used for the transportation of the public.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of owners of all buildings, cars, or other vehicles, conveyances, or common carriers, used for transportation of the public in this city or the officers in control thereof, to post and keep posted, in prominent places, conspicuously lettered signs warning the public against violating the